You know, this past year certainly has prevented all of us from doing things we love and count on as fixtures in our annual calendars. For me, I have missed my travels to Chicago to see our wonderful Sisters and visits to the mountains of Haiti to see my friends. I was disappointed that I couldn't cheer on our swimmers recently as they medaled at the District Championships. Even the Archdiocesan band concert is via Zoom!

One of my favorite events on the Kardish social calendar is the wonderful Villa Auction. I simply can't believe that this is our second "annual" "virtual" Auction. I truly miss the chance to see you all as we relax and catch up on the adventures of our Jems, past and present.

Oh, well. I choose to look at the bright side. While the restrictions of the pandemic remained, we continued to have live play performances, in-person learning, sports, and a multitude of service opportunities. And we have maintained the special spirit of Villa in our traditions, even if we had to adjust the exact nature of our fun. Our community has pulled together to make all the fun we could this past year and we will again this week!

The Villa Auction is our largest single fundraiser of our school year. Your generosity enables us to continue to expand the opportunities available for our Jems. Not so long ago, I was at the corner sign replacing the letters (by hand) to promote the Auction to our community. I am happy to report that even this sign will be replaced soon with the latest in digital technology — and then my shoes won't need as much shining!

Signage aside, many others have noticed what an incredible community Villa is for each of our young women to discern "who" God wants them to be. Next fall, we will enjoy record enrollment and I am sure you will agree that the 150 test takers at our recent practice test also bodes well for Villa's future.

The Villa Auction is here! And, we will still have our fun, even if I have to wait a while longer before I can thank you in person for all you do for our beloved Villa. But I do want to publicly give a "shout out" and warm expression of gratitude to this year's Auction co-chairs, Alex Noone and Maureen Montemuro. Ladies, your efforts are really making a difference for us all!

Stay healthy, My Friends!

Love and prayers,

Thomas A. Kardish

Giving at Villa

THANK YOU THANK YOU THANK YOU

As you may know, tuition is the largest source of income at Villa Joseph Marie, as it is in the majority of schools. That tuition, however, covers only about 85% of what it costs to educate a young woman at Villa. The remaining 15% is raised through Villa's Annual Spring Auction and the generosity of donors to our Always Villa Fund. Our Jems depend on the success of this Auction to ensure that the best possible education is available to them at an affordable price.

Your active participation in the Annual Spring Auction and the Always Villa Fund reflects your commitment to ensuring the availability of the highest level of secondary education for area young women. Thank you for your continued support of Villa and our Jems through your support of this event. Every day, you inspire us to embrace the words of our Foundress, the Venerable Mother Maria Kaupas...

ALWAYS MORE, ALWAYS BETTER, ALWAYS WITH LOVE!

All resort-private vacation homes are offered to adults and minors accompanied by adults. No pets are allowed.

Items will be distributed from the Villa Joseph Marie campus Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23 and 24, 8:00-11:00am and 3:00-6:00pm. Bidders will be permitted to select their pickup time through SignUp Genius, which

We request that you arrive for the queue no earlier than 5 minutes ahead of your scheduled time. If you arrive earlier than 5 minutes from your scheduled time, feel free to park in the school lot between the soccer field and school building. While on the campus, bidders are required to remain in their vehicles, at all times. Auction volunteers will load the appropriate items into bidders' vehicles, after which bidders are asked to exit the campus.

TAX INFORMATION

1. Charitable organizations are required to provide contributors with detailed tax information in connection with their charitable contributions, including amounts paid for items offered at Auction. Villa Joseph Marie will comply with applicable laws, but the donor must be aware of the rules and follow them closely.

2. Charitable deduction for the purchase of items is limited to the amount, if any, by which payment exceeds the fair market value of that item. This is true even if the item was donated to Villa Joseph Marie for the Auction.

3. Your receipt includes a good-faith estimate of the value of the item offered. We have done our best to make a good-faith estimate of the value of each item in the Auction, however, we are not professional appraisers and are not responsible for the accuracy of such valuations.

4. If your winning bid is more than $250, you will require a receipt to substantiate any deduction you are otherwise entitled to claim. You will be provided a receipt listing all items and the fair market value for those items. Please remember to retain your receipt for income tax purposes. The IRS may disallow deductions for which you cannot produce a receipt when asked to do so.

5. As a donor of an Auction item, you must retain your copy of the Auction contract and/or acknowledgement in or to claim a tax deduction.

6. It is advisable to consult your tax advisor for definitive advice regarding the deductibility of an individual item.
