

Application for Catholic Relief Services Ambassadors 2018-2019

Thank you for your interest in this new-ish program. We are excited to see where the second year can take us. The mission of the CRS Ambassadors program is to educate students about Catholic Social Teaching and advocate for solidarity with the global poor, if this mission excites you, then we are thrilled to have you applying! Please know, that because this is still a new program at Villa, you, as a student leader, will have a say in what it looks like. For this reason, we ask for both enthusiasm and patience as we form the program.
